Plump and juicy, our Chilean crab claw meat features whole pieces of handselected, flavorful crab meat. These delectable crab morsels turn traditional crab dishes such as crepes, dips and Louis into something extraordinary. When recipes demand only the best, choose our Chilean crab claw meat.

Our high-quality crab meat can be used alone in recipes requiring crab, or it can be mixed with Dungeness crab meat to bring down plate costs. By itself, or blended with other crab, Chilean crab claw meat is flavorful, versatile, and cost effective.

We invite you to compare the taste and texture of the Chilean crab claw meat with the crabmeat traditionally used in favorite recipes. Seatech Chilean crab claw meat will provide an unfailingly good alternative.
